RICHMOND CLUB PRIVACY STATEMENT

Richmond Club is subject to the provisions of the Privacy Act 1988. The personal information provided by you on this form/application and attached documents will be used primarily for the purpose for which that information is requested. Failure to provide all of the requested information may result in your application being delayed or delay the processing of it. You have a right to access and correct any of your personal information that the club holds about you. The club does not usually disclose your personal information to any other organisation or person unless there is a legal requirement to do so. The club may disclose your information to third parties that provide services under contract to the Club. These contracts require the third party to keep your personal information confidential and secure.

Your personal information, including information about you obtained as a result of you placing your membership card in a poker machine or having your card swiped when making a purchase at a Club outlet (not ATM's), may be used by the club, for marketing purposes. This is to improve our services and to provide you with the latest information about those services and any new related services and promotions. (Note: For the purpose of the Privacy Act the Club's quarterly magazine is considered to be information for members of the club and not a direct marketing tool).

Our annual report can be accessed at our website richmondclub.com.au

If you wish to receive a hardcopy of the annual report please either email or send a letter to the Marketing Manager.

If you wish to discontinue receiving promotional material, or withdraw from the Legacy Star Rewards Scheme, you may request this at any time in writing to the club.
